

Circle K's Service Partners

STUFH (Students Team Up to Fight Hunger) is an organization that works to help feed the hungry while also raising awareness among college students about hunger in their local communities.

STUFH

You can support STUFH by hosting a food drive at the end of the year, allowing departing students to donate any leftover unopened food products.

Better World Books is a for-profit social enterprise that collects and sells books online to fund literacy initiatives around the world.

Every time you buy a book on their website, they donate a book to someone in need.

Up with People is an educational organization whose mission is to inspire young people to make a difference around the world. Through volunteering and music, they work to break down cultural barrier and create global understanding.

UWP has summer camps and study abroad programs to promote cultural awareness.

Up with People
Bringing the World Together

March of Dimes is an organization that works to fight against premature birth and the often long-term health issues that arise in children that are born prematurely.

You can get involved with the March of Dimes by advocating for the cause, joining a march, and volunteering through the organization.